Tour Itinerary

Tour Itinerary

Day-by-day plan & key activities

Day 1

Phnom Penh Arrival

Upon arrival at Phnom Penh Airport, meet and transfer by the local guide to the hotel for check-in (early check-in is not included and is subject to the hotel's availability). Free at leisure.

Day 2

Phnom Penh City Tour

Breakfast at the hotel.

Begin your tour by visiting Wat Phnom, the center of Phnom Penh that gives the city its name. At 27 meters above sea level, it is the highest point in the area. As the town gradually grew around it, the settlement became known as Phnom Penh, the hill of Penh. It is the zero point of the city. Continue to visit Wat Unalom, a Buddhist monastery that serves as the headquarters for one of Cambodia's most revered Buddhist patriarchs. This pagoda includes a post-Angkorean stupa.

Next, visit the Toul Sleng Genocide Museum, formerly a high school before 1975 and later an interrogation prison known as S-21 during the Khmer Rouge era. Now a genocide museum, it tells the tragic stories of thousands of innocent Cambodians tortured on its grounds. The museum exhibits haunting photographs and torture devices, providing a somber yet essential insight into Cambodia's turbulent past. Lunch at a local restaurant (Khmer Sorin).

In the afternoon, visit the Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda, two fine examples of Khmer architecture. The Royal Palace, built in 1866 by the French for King Norodom, also houses the Silver Pagoda, named for its floor made up of 5,329 silver tiles. Finally, visit the National Museum, home to Khmer art and sculptures from various periods of Cambodian history. Dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 3

Phnom Penh - Kampong Cham - Kratie

Early morning at 6:00 AM, your guide and a cyclo driver will take you on a ride along Boulevard Norodom Sihanouk to Orussey Market. Stop at a local valley (Deourng Hem 7 Makara Guesthouse) to enjoy a local breakfast such as noodles or steamed rice, accompanied by coffee or a soft drink. Return to the hotel by cyclo and prepare to check out.

At 8:30 AM, depart for Kratie, stopping first at Skuon to visit the spider market, where deep-fried insects like crickets, spiders, grasshoppers, and scorpions are sold. Continue to Kampong Cham City, visiting Koh Pen, an island in the Mekong River, known for its seasonal Bamboo Bridge—the longest in Cambodia. Walk across the bridge, explore the village and local farms, and visit a Buddhist monastery. Return to Kampong Cham for lunch, then proceed to Kratie. Upon arrival, check in at the hotel and enjoy free leisure time. In the late afternoon, a tuk-tuk ride will take you around the city before heading to a local restaurant for dinner.

Day 4

Kratie - Stung Treng - Koh Han

Depart at 7:30 AM for Prek Kampi to see the freshwater Irrawaddy dolphins. Enjoy a 45-60 minute boat ride to spot these unique creatures in the Mekong River. Continue to Stung Treng City for lunch, then proceed to Koh Han. Take a boat ride to explore the beautiful flooded forests in the Cambodian Mekong, stopping at small islands for swimming. Dinner will be provided by the local community, and overnight accommodation will be in a basic tent on Koh Han (includes a mat, pillow, and blanket).

Day 5*Koh Han - Preah Vihear - Koh Ker

Enjoy breakfast prepared by the Koh Han local community, then take a two-hour boat ride upstream to the Preah Romkel community near the Laos border. Along the way, admire the flooded forests and water birds. Stop briefly at a Laos village to walk around and enjoy a cup of Laos coffee before heading to Preah Romkel for lunch.

After lunch, visit the Sopheak Mitt Waterfall, one of the world's largest waterfalls, located on the Cambodia-Laos border. Drive to Koh Ker, stopping for a coffee break in Preah Vihear Town. Dinner and overnight stay will be at a homestay or lodging in Koh Ker.

Day 6*Koh Ker - Preah Vihear - Siem Reap

Start at 6:30 AM by visiting the Koh Ker temples, which offer a serene atmosphere in the early morning. Built in the 10th century, Koh Ker briefly served as the Khmer Empire's capital from 928 to 944 AD. The pyramid-style temple is partially overgrown, making for a unique experience.

Afterward, have lunch at a local restaurant in Saem, then take a 4WD ride to the top of Phnom Danret to visit Preah Vihear Temple. This UNESCO World Heritage Site, dating back to the 11th century, sits at an altitude of over 700 meters and offers stunning views over Thailand and Cambodia.

Drive to Siem Reap, stopping at Ta Mok's house in Anlong Veng if time permits. Arrive late in the afternoon. Dinner is on your own.

Day 7*Siem Reap - Free Day

Breakfast at the hotel. Enjoy a free day at your own leisure.

Day 8

Siem Reap - Angkor Temples

Breakfast at the hotel at 6:00 AM.

At 7:30 AM, our guide and driver will pick you up from the hotel for a full-day visit to the main temples in Angkor Archaeological Park: Angkor Wat, Bayon, Banteay Srei, and Ta Prohm.

Begin with Angkor Wat temple, entering through the East Gate and exiting through the West Gate. Explore its architectural marvels, including levels 1, 2, and 3, to gain insight into Khmer culture and civilization. Admire the intricate Apsara carvings, a testament to the Angkor period.

Next, visit the mysterious Royal City of Angkor Thom. The 50-tower temple offers a captivating experience, with enigmatic faces appearing from the stone. Begin at the South Gate and explore Bayon, Baphuon, the Royal Enclosure, and the Terrace of the Elephants.

Enjoy a homemade lunch at a local house. Hosts Mr. Peout and Mrs. Gin will serve a delicious meal and share stories about their lives during the Khmer Rouge period and beyond.

After lunch, continue to the jewel of Khmer art, Banteay Srei Temple, one hour from Siem Reap. This red sandstone temple features elaborate carvings in an excellent state of preservation.

On the return journey, visit the photogenic Ta Prohm Temple of Tomb Raider fame. Overgrown with massive tree roots, this iconic site creates a hauntingly beautiful scene where nature and man-made structures intertwine.

Return to Siem Reap for a one-hour Khmer traditional foot massage before returning to your hotel. Dinner is at your leisure.

Wake up early for a transfer to Phnom Krom, located 13 km south of Siem Reap. Climb the hill to view the sunrise over rice paddies and the floating village of Tonle Sap Lake, followed by a picnic breakfast atop Phnom Krom.

Return to the hotel for breakfast, check out, and drive to Battambang (a 2.5-hour journey). Upon arrival, visit an ancient Khmer traditional house. Battambang, Cambodia's second-largest city, offers a mix of history and culture. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant and check in to the hotel.

In the afternoon, explore the Sangker River area, home to preserved Khmer wooden stilted houses and tropical fruit farms. Taste local fruits like oranges and pineapples, and observe activities such as rice paper production and rice whiskey brewing.

Continue to Phnom Sampeau, a limestone hill with caves that hold reminders of Cambodia's history. From the hilltop, enjoy sweeping countryside views. At dusk, watch bats emerge from the caves while sipping a cold beer or soft drink.

Return to your hotel for the night and have dinner at a local restaurant.

Wake early and head to the Bamboo Train Station for a ride through villages and rice paddies. This unique bamboo platform powered by a motor engine offers a refreshing and scenic journey.

Return to the hotel for a late breakfast, check out, and drive to Kampong Luong in Pursat Province, one of Tonle Sap Lake's largest floating villages. Take a boat ride to experience the daily life of Cambodian families living in floating homes.

Afterward, enjoy lunch at a local restaurant in Pursat before driving to the riverside town of Kampong Chhnang, known for its picturesque landscapes and pottery-making villages. Observe traditional pottery production and sugar collection from palm trees.

Dinner at a local restaurant and overnight at a hotel in Kampong Chhnang.

Day 11

Kampong Chhnang - Kirirom National Park

After breakfast at the hotel, drive to the Chambok Eco-Tourism Community in Kampong Speu Province. The journey offers views of rice fields, palm trees, and sugarcane plantations.

En route, visit the natural hot springs in Oral District, known as Te Teuk Pus. These springs feature sulfuric waters at 70°C surrounded by grass and red rocks.

Continue to the Chambok Eco-Tourism Community for lunch and a short trek to Chambok Waterfall, located 2 km from the community office.

Proceed to Kirirom National Park, check in at Vkirom Resort, and enjoy refreshments. A local motorcycle taxi will take you through the jungle pine to Thmor Loy, a scenic spot offering views of lush forests from the hilltop.

Return to the resort for dinner and overnight.

Day 12

Kirirom National Park - Koh Rong - Koh Rong Sanloem

After breakfast at the resort, explore the top of the Kirirom Mountain Range. Visit the old silver houseware workshop and the former royal residence before heading to Sihanoukville.

Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant in Sihanoukville and briefly tour a city before boarding a speedboat to Koh Rong Sanloem. Upon arrival, the resort team will welcome you at the pier and assist with check-in.

The evening is at your leisure, and dinner is on your own.

Day 13

Koh Rong Sanloem

Breakfast at the resort.

Free at your own leisure.

Any activities such as diving, boat trips, and hiking are available through local suppliers (on account).

Day 14

Koh Rong Sanloem - Sihanoukville - Phnom Penh

Breakfast at the resort.

Take an early speed boat back to Sihanoukville and continue by private car to Phnom Penh. Upon arrival, check in at the hotel. Free at leisure.

Option: Tour Cost = US$ 65 per person (Minimum of 2 persons)

At about 6 PM, our guide and tuk-tuk driver will pick you up from the hotel for a food tour through the city. The journey begins with a tuk-tuk ride along the riverfront and a stop at a lovely bar where the guide will provide a briefing and tour presentation, accompanied by one cocktail or drink.

Next, visit a lively local night market before dining with locals at a popular street food spot. Sample Cambodian-style fresh seafood, a special recipe Saba (mackerel) fish dish, and squid seasoned with Kampot pepper.

Continue the tuk-tuk ride through the city's bright lights to a trendy nightspot featuring live music and exciting local delicacies. The tour includes a stop at the celebrated Independence Monument for a quick insight into the city's history and a fantastic photo opportunity. End the evening at a stylish rooftop bar with panoramic views of Phnom Penh City, enjoying a soft drink or local beer before returning to the hotel.

This tour includes a guide, tuk-tuk ride, soft drinks, and food.
